

The University of KwaZulu-Natal and the Gandhi-Luthuli Documentation Centre

cordially invites to you to the

2021 Dr Phyllis Naidoo Memorial Lecture

Topic: Unemployment, Poverty and Social Unrest during COVID-19

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Mr Lukhoni Mnguni

Mr Lukhona Mnguni is currently a PhD Candidate in Political Science at the University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban, South Africa. He contributes significantly to the national discourse on a range of issues through his writing and commenting. He currently hosts a flagship show: Power Talk on POWER987 a commercial radio station in Gauteng Province. He has served the country in various ways, including presenting to the Presidential Commission of Inquiry investigating the feasibility of free higher education as well as being a contributing political analyst on eNCA, SABC News, Newzroom Afrika, 702 Radio, and many other platforms where he provides analysis of South Africa's important news headlines on a regular basis. He continues to hold public seminars and give talks on key topics that focus on the development of South Africa within the context of the African Continent and the World at large.

He is a conference speaker, locally and abroad, invited by a variety of organisations from the banking sector to investors and various organisations in the civil society space. He also contributes to strategic sessions of various organisations, especially in the education sector. Lastly, he dedicates some of his time to availing himself as a board member to a few organisations that align with his values and vision for society.

SUMMARY AND RESPONSE

Mr Joe Mhlanga

Founder and Editor of Behind the News Network
Geopolitical Analyst

DATE: WEDNESDAY, 22ND SEPTEMBER 2021 | TIME: 17H00-18H30

RSVP: CLICK HERE

ENQUIRIES ONLY:

Pamela Adams
adamsp@ukzn.ac.za

Thiru Munsamy
munsamyt@ukzn.ac.za